

To provide the principal forum for toxicology in the UK, to support and enrich the careers of toxicologists, and to promote the importance and advancement of toxicology in the wider scientific and lay communities

Who are we ?

- Society for all with an interest in toxicology
- Formed in 1979 from its predecessor organisation: The Toxicology Club of the UK
- In 1994 the bts was instrumental in the creation of the UK Register of Toxicologists
- Today the bts is a thriving Society with membership across the globe

To find out more about our affiliations, benefits, educational & training offerings please visit us www.thebts.org

Official Journal

Benefits of membership

- Mentorship scheme
- Discounts on conference & course fees, scientific books, Toxicology Research Journal & RSB membership
- Professional development : access to continuing education webinars & courses
- Affiliation to EUROTOX, IUTOX and RSB
- Networking & community
- Travel bursaries, awards & prizes at all levels
- Opportunity to serve on committees
- Job adverts

Annual Congress

- High quality science, both basic and applied, with national and international contributors
- A varied programme designed to interest the breadth of our membership
- Toxicologists from all areas of the discipline come together to learn, discuss the latest research and build their professional network
- Continuing Education Programme
- Prizes and bursaries for all career levels

Speciality Sections

Promote and facilitate networking, discussion, communication, collaboration & support amongst bts members across their specialist area

